PMA EXPANDS TEAM Expansion Brings New Skills On-Board

CHARLOTTE, NC – Patton McDowell & Associates (PMA), founded in 2009, has seen continual success even during trying times. President and founder, Patton McDowell has increased the breadth and depth of the PMA team with the addition of two new players.

The expanded team at PMA consists of Rex Otey, Consultant and Ally Yusuf, Associate.

“More work has boosted the reputation of PMA and we have an increasing volume of both referrals and new initiatives. We’re fortunate that there is an increased need in the market and that we are a part of more and more nonprofits’ solution,” said Patton McDowell, President. “The team that we’ve assembled enables us to focus on the shifting needs of our clients, while offering a broader array of services.”
