

NEWS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 15, 2011

Contact: David Ibsen
704.321.4741 x104

JOSH JACOBSON RECEIVES CFRE CERTIFICATION

PMA Managing Director Attains Professional Credential

CHARLOTTE, NC – Josh Jacobson, Managing Director at Patton McDowell & Associates (PMA) has recently obtained his CFRE, Certified Fund Raising Executive, certification. This attainment is managed through CFRE International and is comprised of four sections, including: education, professional practice, performance and service. This certification process entails: a written application, a written examination; and agreement to uphold a code of ethics and Accountability Standards.

“This recognition, reflecting a career of hard work in the nonprofit fund raising space, demonstrates Jacobson’s commitment to excellence in his work,” said Patton McDowell, President of PMA). “All of at PMA appreciate Josh’s hard work and dedication to further his professional credentials, which benefits our clients and the team here at PMA.”

About Patton McDowell & Associates

Patton McDowell & Associates provides strategic planning, organizational development and fundraising counsel to the nonprofit community. Founded in Charlotte, NC in 2009, the firm has grown to serve clients in the Southeast and Mid-Atlantic with an expanding team of nonprofit professionals. To learn more, please visit www.pattonmcdowell.com.

###